

Property 2: Debog Farm and property 3: Shielpark - Views from the A70 looking northwards to Debog Farm to the left and Shielpark to the right of the picture. The site lies to the north west, with the turbines mostly screened by Shiel Hill.

Property 2: Debog Farm - Views from the A70 looking northwards across to Debog Farm. The site lies to the north west, with the turbines mostly screened by Shiel Hill.

Property 3: Shielpark - Views from the A70 looking northwards across to Shiel Park. The site lies to the north west, with the turbines mostly screened by Shiel Hill.

Property 4: Monksfoot and property 5: The Shieling and property 6: Inches Cottage - View from the property access road off the A70 looking north west to The Shieling and Inches Cottage. The site lies to the north and north west, with the turbines mostly screened by Strawberry Hill.

Property 5: The Shieling and property 6: Inches Cottage - View from the A70 looking northwards to The Shieling and Inches Cottage. The site lies to the north and north west, with the turbines mostly screened by Strawberry Hill and Arrarat Hill.

Property 8: Carmacoup Farm Cottage to the right and property 9: Carmacoup Farm to the left - View from the A70 looking south, houses would look out towards the turbines (northwards from the A70). The turbine site lies to the opposite side of the A70 and would be partially visible behind Longhouse Hill.

Property 10: Viaduct Cottage - View from the A70 looking North East, Viaduct Cottage would look out towards the turbines to the north but the turbines would not be visible from this location.

Property 11: Bungalow Cottage - View from the A70 southwards. The turbine site is located on the opposite side of the A70, northwards. From Bungalow Cottage there would be minimal visibility with only the top of the tips of the windturbines being visible.

Property 12: Longhouse Cottage - View south west from the A70 towards Longhouse Cottage, turbine site located northwards from the A70. Turbines would not be visible from Longhouse Cottage due to Longhouse Hill.

Property 12: Longhouse Cottage - View north east from the A70 towards Longhouse Cottage, turbine site located northwards from the A70. Turbines would not be visible from Longhouse Cottage due to Longhouse Hill.

Property 13: 2 Breface Cottage (left) and property 14: 1 Breface Cottage (right) looking north west. Only the tips of 3-4 turbines would be visible in this location through vegetation in the back garden.

Property 15: Properties on Driverholm Terrace - One of the properties on Driverholm Terrace, view southwards of the property, there would be minimal visibility of the proposed wind farm northwards from the properties on the road.

Property 15: Properties on Driverholm Terrace - Stablestone Primary School, one of the properties on Driverholm Terrace, view north east of the property. The site is located north west, there would be minimal visibility of the proposed wind farm from this location, six tips would be partially visible but additional screening is provided by trees behind the properties.

Property 15: Properties on Driverholm Terrace - Glespin Community Centre, one of the properties on Driverholm Terrace, view north west of the property. The site is located north west and there would be minimal visibility of the proposed wind farm from this location, six tips would be partially visible but additional screening is provided by trees behind the properties.

Property 16: Properties on Ayr Road from the bridge crossing the Douglas Water to the south of Glespin looking north west towards the Properties on Ayr Road. The turbine site is situated behind Longhouse Hill which is the hill behind the properties, northwards from the houses. This row of houses would see a only the very tips of turbines above the hill.

Property 16: Properties on Ayr Road and Property 18: Tablestone (right) from the bridge crossing the Douglas Water to the south of Glespin looking north west towards the Properties on Ayr Road. The turbine site is situated behind Longhouse Hill which is the hill behind the properties, northwards from the houses. This row of houses would see a only the very tips of turbines above the hill.

Property 17: Properties on Hillview Crescent - View towards housing and playground, looking north east. The turbine site is situated north west of the Properties on Hillview Crescent.

Property 17: Properties on Hillview Crescent - View towards housing in a south western direction. Turbine site location is to the rear of the properties in a northerly direction.

Property 17: Properties on Hillview Crescent - View towards housing in a south western direction. Turbine site location is to the rear of the properties in a northerly direction.

Property 17: Properties on Hillview Crescent - View towards housing in a south western direction. Turbine site location is to the rear of the properties in a northerly direction.

Property 18: Tablestane - view from the bridge crossing the Douglas Water to the south of Glespin, looking north west towards the Tablestane. The turbine site is situated behind Longhouse Hill north west from the houses. Some turbine tips would be seen above the hill to the north west.

Property 19: Properties at Hazelside Farm and Property 20: Hazelside - View north east towards the properties, site located north west. These properties will have a view of all 14 turbines in some form or another. Due to the wooded surroundings the views will be screened to a certain extent.

Property 21: Hazelside Lodge - View north west site located behind the properties behind Longhouse Hill. The property will have a view of all 14 turbines in some form or another. Due to the wooded surroundings the views will be screened to a certain extent.

Property 19: Properties at Hazelside Farm and Property 20: Hazelside - View north west towards the properties, site located north west. These properties will have a view of all 14 turbines in some form or another. Due to the wooded surroundings the views will be screened to a certain extent.

Property 22: Station House - looking north west. The views here are fairly open and there is visibility of the site, but there is also some woodland nearby concealing some views.

Property 22: Station House - The views looking north west here are fairly open and there is visibility of the site, but there is also some woodland nearby concealing some views.

Property 23: Blackwood Cottage - The views looking north west are fairly open and there is visibility of the site from the property, albeit obliquely.

Property 23: Blackwood Cottage - The views looking north west are fairly open and there is visibility of the site from the property.